COLUMBIA HEIGHTS PUBLIC SCHOOLS

2016-2017 ACADEMIC, ACTIVITIES
AND ATHLETICS CALENDAR

Creating College
and Career-Ready

Dear neighbors and friends,

This Fall marks the beginning of an exciting new school year. We look forward to welcoming students, staff and families to Columbia Heights Public Schools for a great year of learning, discovery and growth. We will build upon the successes and lessons learned from the previous school year and carry forward worlds of opportunity for every learner.

Columbia Heights Public Schools has a nationally recognized Advanced Placement academic program, award-winning visual and performing arts, plus student athletes who compete at the state level. We pride ourselves on creating college and career ready graduates. We are grateful to our community and partners for generously providing more than $200,000 in local scholarships for our 2016 graduates.

Our Personalized Learning Initiative means students have access to 21st century tools and learning methods crucial for college success and in future careers. Advancement Via Individual Determination (AVID) is another way we support Columbia Heights students on their pathway toward college and career readiness. AVID aims to “close the achievement gap by preparing all students for college readiness and success in a global society”, and this school year we are a District-wide AVID site.

All of this learning is taking place in newly created flexible learning spaces like Learning Studios, Performing Arts Studios and early learning “incubators” where students engage both their hearts and minds.

This calendar is a tool for your use and to know about the many school events that will take place throughout the year. We look forward to seeing you in the schools and in the community.

Heights Pride!

Kathy L. Kelly
Superintendent

A group of students, mostly of African descent, are sitting on the floor in a library or classroom setting. They are wearing yellow polo shirts with a dark blue collar. The background shows wooden bookshelves filled with books. The students are looking towards the left side of the frame. A girl with long, curly brown hair is in the foreground, looking slightly to her left. Behind her, a boy is looking towards the same direction. To the left, another girl is looking towards the camera. The overall atmosphere is focused and attentive.

JAMES DENNIS LABELLE

Rank and organization: Private First Class, U.S. Marine Corps Reserve.

Born: 22 November 1925, Columbia Heights, Minn.

Accredited to: Minnesota.

Citation: For conspicuous gallantry and intrepidity at the risk of his life above and beyond the call of duty while attached to the 27th Marines, 5th Marine Division, in action against enemy Japanese forces during the seizure of Iwo Jima in the Volcano Islands, 8 March 1945. Filling a gap in the front lines during a critical phase of the battle, Pfc. LaBelle had dug into a foxhole with 2 other Marines and, grimly aware of the enemy's persistent attempts to blast a way through our lines with hand grenades, applied himself with steady concentration to maintaining a sharply vigilant watch during the hazardous night hours. Suddenly a hostile grenade landed beyond reach in his foxhole. Quickly estimating the situation, he determined to save the others if possible, shouted a warning, and instantly dived on the deadly missile, absorbing the exploding charge in his own body and thereby protecting his comrades from serious injury. Stouthearted and indomitable, he had unhesitatingly relinquished his own chance of survival that his fellow Marines might carry on the relentless fight against a fanatic enemy. His dauntless courage, cool decision and valiant spirit of self-sacrifice in the face of certain death reflect the highest credit upon Pfc. LaBelle and upon the U.S. Naval Service. He gallantly gave his life in service of his country.

Harry S. Truman, President of the United States

Jim LaBelle was a student at Columbia Heights High School when he answered the call to serve his country in World War II. His heroic actions at the Battle of Iwo Jima cost him his life, which earned him the Congressional Medal of Honor. This District honors Pfc. James D. LaBelle as a true American hero.
